

LORD KELVIN, SCIENTIST, IS DEAD, AGE 83

Great Physical and Mathematician
Classed as Foremost of the Age.

GOT MANY HIGH HONORS

GLASGOW, Dec. 18.—Lord Kelvin, the noted scientist, died here yesterday. Lord Kelvin, whose wife died recently, recovered from a dangerous illness, suffered from a chill a fortnight ago. Last Wednesday serious complications developed, with only an occasional ray of hope for his recovery was then abandoned. The last consciousness this afternoon, and passed away peacefully.

Till the time of his fatal illness Lord Kelvin possessed remarkable vigor of body and mind. He leaves no heir, and his title became extinct. The newspapers had him the highest regard, and he was comparable with Newton and Faraday.

Born in Ireland.
William Thomson, first Lord Kelvin, was born at Belfast, Ire., June 20, 1824. He was a celebrated mathematician and physicist, and received the chair of natural philosophy in Glasgow University from 1846 to 1890. He was knighted in 1890 and was created Baron Kelvin in 1892.

In the domain of heat, electricity and magnetism he was one of the great investigators of the century and he invented a number of instruments used in his investigations. He was also a pioneer in the study of the Atlantic.

Lord Kelvin has been decorated with many honors, including the Order of the Legion of Honor, the Order of the Red Cross, and the Order of the King Leopold of Belgium. He also received the Order of the Japanese and other governments.

Visited America in 1902.
In 1902, Lord Kelvin, accompanied by Lady Kelvin, made a visit to the United States. He was received with great honor and he spent several days in New York City.

He was also received with great honor in other parts of the country. He was the first of the Order of the Japanese and other governments.

Mrs. Bredin Says She Never Wants to See or Hear of Him Again.

TAKES TRAIN FOR BOSTON

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—While a detective employed by her husband watched the Washington Hotel, in Jersey City, Mrs. William Allen Bredin managed to evade him. She made her way to the Grand Central station, where she met Charles Lloyd Roberts. The pair took a train for Boston. Mrs. Bredin says she will sail for Vancouver from there. Roberts is to go back to Vancouver.

Previous to this Mrs. Bredin had lunch in Jersey City this week where with Roberts they were arranged on a charge of disturbing the peace before Magistrate Miller.

Bredin, whose name is Edwin C. is with the "Peter Pan" company. Bredin met his wife Sunday in the Pennsylvania station in Jersey City. He has not seen her in three days and thought she was at her home in New York. He was told by a friend that she was in Jersey City. He went to the hotel and found her. CLEVER "FIND" SINGER WANTS BY LIQUOR MEN HER OLD HOME

LOWISTON, Me., Dec. 18.—After four hours searching in the house of Pierre Toussaint on Lincoln street the squad of liquor deputies found the more concealed contrived "hide" ever discovered in the city and took fifty quarts of whiskey from it.

The deputies found that by pulling a cord in a closet a portion of the house was raised up on rollers and the liquor was hidden in the space below.

The "hide" was so arranged that the liquor was hidden in the space below the house. The "hide" was so arranged that the liquor was hidden in the space below the house.
